NUMBER 3

Nyhart Sunbeams.

Hello folks, here I come with tidings from "Peaceful Valley." By the way, did you know that the fountain of perpetual youth for which Ponce de Leon sought so diligently, is located right here in Peaceful Valley? Well, it is, and any of the natives will show you the spring and invite you to drink and not charge you a cent. If you want to be "sunny" and live again the days of your youth we invite you.

When I read the speeches of Hughes, Wilson, Bryan, Reed and others and compare them with the fiery outbursts which occur daily at the cross roads emporium of Mayor Campbell how puerile and insignificant they appear. Seems like all the statesmen are one the farms yet.

Bob Sprouls the genial "hill billy" just north of Nyhart, killed a "hawg" the other day and brought the "mayor" some fine country sausage. Aside from being a socialist and a little bit "queer" at times, Bob is a real good fellow.

In Bates county there are about a million men whose mothers raised their boys to be a soldier—at least you'd think so to hear them talk of wanting war with Mexico. But say, just wait till the call comes and see them hike for the woods.

Mrs. Pal Englehardt has been quite sick with malarial fever at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Simpson. Dr. Lockwood was out to see her Tuesday of last week. She is getting along nicely which her many friends will be glad to know. In the meantime Pal is "backing."

Some one asked me the other day "when the war in Europe would be ended" and I said that so far as I have been able to inform myself I thought the end would come soon as the "war was over" and I don't know of anyone who can give a more intelligent answer, do you?

Somebody has produced an "odorless" onion. So the onion farmer may as well put away the hoe and rake. Who on earth would bother eating onions if they can't have the pleasure of blowing their onion scented breath in the face of some one who don't eat onions. I hope the report is not true, 'twould be a calamity indeed.

I attended a good roads "meeting" last week at Cornland school house under the auspices of Butler Commercial Club. The meeting was very interesting. The speakers were a little "backward" about coming "forward" but all acquitted themselves nobly. It listens good and I hope their plans for the Jefferson Highway may be fully carried out.

Our game warden, J. A. Patterson, left last Monday on the 10:05 train headed north. I asked him where he was going and he said "sealed orders." Don't know where he was going but he was on his way. Poachers and law breakers would better be careful for Doc. will gather 'em in.

An "odorless" onion and that ain't all, some one has developed a "puckerless persimmon"—will wonders never cease. Soon we may expect to have an "odorless skunk" or a skunk who carries a sachet powder. Ain't it awful.

Let the road be rough and dreary and it end far out of sight, foot it bravely, strong or weary, vote for Wilson—He's all right.

Once upon a dark night dreary, as I puzzled faint and weary, over half a hundred bills I should have paid before, suddenly there came a tapping, 'twas the sheriff loudly rapping—boldly asking for admission to my little "cross-roads" store. Nothing less and nothing more. Open, then I flung the portal, when in stepped a lordly mortal with a star as big as "Venus" one I ne'er had seen before. Loudly he began to sputter and I'll swear he did not stutter. He could speak the plainest "lingo" I had ever heard before. Aye he was some talker "shore." Not a minute stopped or stayed he—with vitrolic tongue he flayed me—told of all the mean things I had ever done before. Said I was not fit for "livin'" on this earth or up in Heaven, other things he said galore—many things, which made me sore. All in vain my humble pleading, for he blustered on unheeding, said a "cussin'" I was needing—should have had it long before. Here I grabbed my old six shooter, then I said you "pop-eyed hooter" get you going from my house and come back never, never more; and he murmured as he scooted for the door, "Never more."

P. S.—It was only a "dream" and the noise was made by a "section hand" on his way to work who had left his tobacco at home and wanted a dime's worth of Horse Shoe.

SUNNY JIM.

Mt. Carmel News.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan Cope of near New Home called at the home of her brother, W. E. Osborne Friday.

Mr. Glenn McBride and Robert Norris spent last Sunday with Clyde Bruner.

Clem Custer and wife returned from Louisburg last Sunday. Mrs. Custer went to see her mother and to visit friends.

Dick McGuire and John Barton are hauling logs.

Mrs. Barton and Mrs. McGuire were trading in Amsterdam last Sunday.

Miss Cordie Bruner attended

Sunday school Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Henderson, daughter of C. B. Henderson, of Wyoming, was married a few days ago. We wish the young couple the best of luck.

Mr. Ralph Scott and Mr. Cas Gray have been hauling hay to Amsterdam.

Mr. Tom Bruner is still hauling water and praying for rain.

Mr. Clyde Bruner made a business trip to Hume Friday night and walked home.

Mrs. Rose is visiting at the home of Sig Goode.

Col. Lockeridge and wife were out riding in a buzz wagon last Sunday.

JOHNNY.
